The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `service.hyundai-motor.com/euro5/loginAasra.tiles?siteCd=H`. The page header includes the Hyundai logo and "Global Service Way" on the left, and "Change Language" on the right. A red-bordered pop-up message is centered, stating "service.hyundai-motor.com says enable Popup..." with an "OK" button. Below the header, a "Welcome! Global Service Way" banner is visible. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column features an "AASRA" logo and a "Please Log In" section with a language dropdown set to "English", input fields for "AASRA Email" and "Password", and a "Log In" button. Below the login form, there is a note: "In order to access technical information in GSW, you should have AASRA(Australia Automotive Service and Repair Authority) account. If you would like to create a new account or change your password, please click here to be redirected to the AASRA web site." The right column contains a "TourGuide" link, a "Note" about required plugins (Adobe SVG Viewer, Adobe Acrobat Reader, Macromedia Flash Player), and "* System Requirements" (Windows 7+, 1GB RAM, Internet Explorer 9+, 1024x768 video resolution, Full-Screen Mode). At the bottom of the right column, there is a "SUPPORTED BROWSER" section with icons for Internet Explorer 11 (labeled "OPTIMIZATION BROWSER") and Google Chrome 9+ (labeled "SUPPORTED BROWSER"). A "TOP" button is located at the bottom right of the page.

3. If payment menu doesn't show up, it is likely blocked by the browser.
